

Fellow members of the East Aurora Community,

Our hope is that you are in good health and we look forward to seeing you again as businesses and social events begin to open to the community. We continue to thank those who have helped provide for us during these times. We are looking forward to showing increasing support, as restrictions ease, for all members of our community who have been suffering hardships and loss during this time.

We will continue to post online opportunities for not only educational purposes, but for your enjoyment, of everything we as a people, and our planet, have to offer one another.

 The Nature Conservancy in New York: Click on "exploring virtual nature tours" highlighted in the 'Message from New York Executive Director. There you will find an information-packed article by Matthew L. Miller 'Ways to Enjoy and Protect Nature Without Leaving Your Home'. Highlights:

- Home Safari Facebook Live through the Cincinnati Zoo. Show is live each weekday at 3:00 highlighting a live animal and includes an at home activity for kids.

- Nature Book List

- Trail cameras from around the globe to observe wildlife in their habitats and even volunteer opportunities to sign up to monitor cameras, do headcounts, assist in classifying, and further conservation efforts.

 Experience Central Park in Virtual Reality: go to www.youvisit.com/tour/centralpark

 Department of Environmental Conservation : go to www.dec.ny.gov

Education page has a number of resources and topics to access including:

- Outdoor activities

- Animal, plants, and aquatic life:

- Chemical and pollution control

- Energy and Climate

- Lands and water

DEC is also launching a new program for children: #AdventureAtHome

 Chargepoint has on demand 'Future Fleet Webinar; Electrifying your Motor Pool'

Duration: 30 minutes

 ADK: Adirondack Mountain Club is offering free one-year adult membership to all frontline workers including: Grocery, Public Transport, Healthcare, and Emergency Services.

ADK is offering some Skills Workshops however fees of $30-$80 apply.

Please stay well and hope to see you soon,

Environmental Stewardship Committee Members